

Dark Red Kidney Bean Contest

(Sponsored by Chippewa Valley Bean)

Who: Who is Chippewa Valley Bean? Chippewa Valley Bean is a family owned farm, homesteaded in 1858. Russell and Nancy expanded the family's traditional livestock farm to one focused on kidney beans. They strive to provide their customers with the highest quality dark and light red kidney beans in the world.

What: What is the Dark Red Kidney Bean Contest? The Dark Red Kidney Bean Contest is a fun event to share Kidney Bean Recipes. Anyone can enter. You can enter one dish or you can enter all five categories. All you need to do is make a dish, fill at the contest form and bring the form and the dish to the contest.

Where: Where is the contest? At the Downsville Pavilion

When: When is the contest? It's held every year at Discover Downsville. This year it is August 23rd. Bring your dish to the Pavilion in Downsville by 9am.

Why: Why? Why not? It is fun, it's educational, you will get new recipes and you will meet new people. So make a Kidney Bean dish and come to Discover Downsville Day!

DARK RED KIDNEY BEAN
COOKING CONTEST ENTRY FORM
Contest begins at 9am

Downsville Pavilion

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Name of Dish: _____

Circle the category you are entering:

Hors d'oeuvres

Main Dish

Chili

Desserts

Salad

Name of Recipe: _____

Ingredients:

Instructions _____

